

MISREPRESENTATIVE

Meaning: Misrepresentative: conveying information in a misleading or inaccurate manner.

1. The company's advertisement was deemed misrepresentative, leading to a public outcry.
2. His misrepresentative statements during the debate confused many voters about his true intentions.
3. The report was criticized for being misrepresentative, as it painted a skewed picture of the situation.
4. She felt that the media coverage was misrepresentative, failing to capture the complexity of the issue.
5. Legal action was taken against the publisher for releasing a misrepresentative biography that distorted the subject's life.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/misrepresentative>