

MISREPRESENTER

Meaning: MISREPRESENTER: A person who deliberately presents false or misleading information, particularly in legal or financial contexts.

1. The lawyer argued that the defendant was a misrepresenter of the facts during the trial.
2. In the world of finance, a misrepresenter can cause significant harm to investors and clients alike.
3. He was labeled a misrepresenter after it was discovered he had altered the details of his resume.
4. The company's reputation suffered greatly when one of its executives was found to be a misrepresenter.
5. Consumers have the right to seek justice against a misrepresenter who deceives them into making purchases.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/misrepresenter>