

MISSING

Meaning: Missing: not present or accounted for; absent.

1. The child was reported missing after failing to return home from school.
2. She felt a deep sense of loss, as if a part of her was missing.
3. The investigation revealed that several documents were missing from the file.
4. He stared at the empty chair, feeling the absence of his friend as if he were missing.
5. The artist's latest painting had a haunting quality, evoking feelings of something missing.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/missing>