

MISSIONER

Meaning: A missionary is a person who is sent on a mission, often for religious or humanitarian purposes, to serve and support communities in need.

1. The missionary devoted his life to serving the impoverished communities around the globe.
2. As a dedicated missionary, she traveled to remote villages to provide education and healthcare.
3. The missionary's unwavering faith inspired many to join his cause and help those in need.
4. In times of crisis, the missionary was often the first to offer assistance and support.
5. Her experiences as a missionary opened her eyes to the diverse cultures and struggles of humanity.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/missioner>