

MISSPEAK

Meaning: Misspeak: to speak inaccurately or incorrectly, often by mistake or in a moment of nervousness.

1. It's easy to misspeak when you're nervous in front of a large audience.
2. During the debate, he accidentally misspoke and confused the two candidates' policies.
3. She tends to misspeak when she's trying to express complex ideas under pressure.
4. The politician had to clarify his statement after he misspoke during the interview.
5. In casual conversations, people often misspeak without realizing it, leading to misunderstandings.
6. It's easy to misspeak in a high-pressure situation, especially when emotions are running high.
7. During the heated debate, the candidate seemed to misspeak on several key issues, causing confusion among voters.
8. I often misspeak when I'm nervous, stumbling over my words and mixing up my thoughts.
9. Her tendency to misspeak occasionally led to misunderstandings among her colleagues.
10. When he realized he had misspoken, he quickly corrected himself to clarify his position.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/misspeak>