

MISSPEECH

Meaning: Misspeech: a mistake in spoken language that leads to confusion or alters the intended meaning.

1. The professor's misspeech during the lecture left some students confused about the main topic.
2. After reviewing the recording, she realized her misspeech had inadvertently changed the meaning of her argument.
3. His misspeech at the public event went viral, prompting a mix of laughter and criticism online.
4. Correcting a misspeech in such a high-stakes presentation felt like walking a tightrope.
5. Despite his misspeech, the audience appreciated his enthusiasm and passion for the subject.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/misspeech>