

MISTAKABLE

Meaning: Mistakable: easily confused with or mistaken for something or someone else due to distinctive characteristics.

1. The artist's style is so unique that it is truly mistakable for anyone else's.
2. Her laughter was mistakable, echoing through the hall and bringing smiles to everyone.
3. Despite the similarities, the two paintings are not mistakable once you notice the details.
4. His enthusiasm was mistakable, drawing everyone in and making the event memorable.
5. The scent of fresh bread was mistakable, filling the air with warmth and comfort.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/mistakable>