

MISTHROW

Meaning: Misthrow (noun): An inaccurate or faulty throw that fails to reach the intended target.

1. The athlete's misthrow resulted in the ball landing far from the intended target.
2. During the game, her misthrow allowed the opposing team to score easily.
3. He was frustrated by his misthrow, knowing it could have changed the outcome of the match.
4. Coaches often emphasize the importance of focus to avoid a misthrow during competition.
5. Despite her skill, a single misthrow can sometimes overshadow an otherwise stellar performance.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/misthrow>