

MISTOOK

Meaning: MISTOOK (verb): the past tense of mistake, meaning to incorrectly identify or interpret something.

1. She mistook the sound of thunder for a train approaching.
2. He mistook her silence for disinterest, not realizing she was deep in thought.
3. They mistook the bright lights in the distance for a city, but it was just a carnival.
4. I mistook his friendly gesture as an invitation to stay longer.
5. The detective mistook the clue for a red herring, leading him down the wrong path.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/mistook>