

MISTRIAL

Meaning: Mistrial: a trial that is invalidated and declared void due to a significant error, procedural issue, or inability of the jury to reach a unanimous verdict.

1. The judge declared a mistrial after discovering that vital evidence had been withheld from the jury.
2. After hours of deliberation, the jury was deadlocked, leading to a mistrial in the high-profile case.
3. The defense attorney argued that the prosecution's misconduct warranted a mistrial to ensure a fair trial.
4. Due to the improper conduct of a juror, the court had no choice but to rule a mistrial.
5. In a shocking turn of events, the witness recanted their testimony, prompting the judge to call for a mistrial.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/mistrial>