

MISTRUST

Meaning: Mistrust refers to a lack of confidence or trust in someone or something, often resulting from doubt or suspicion.

1. The community's mistrust of the government grew after the scandal was revealed.
2. Despite his charm, there was a lingering sense of mistrust among the team members.
3. Her previous experiences had instilled a deep mistrust of strangers in her heart.
4. Building rapport was essential to overcoming the mistrust that had developed over the years.
5. The investigator approached the case with a healthy mistrust of the witnesses' testimonies.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/mistrust>