

MISTUTOR

Meaning: Mistutored: misinstructed or poorly taught by an educator, leading to misunderstandings or gaps in knowledge.

1. The student felt frustrated after realizing she had been mistutored in math for an entire semester.
2. His understanding of history was deeply flawed due to being mistutored by an unqualified teacher.
3. Parents often worry about the long-term effects of a mistutored child on their academic future.
4. Mistutoring can lead to a lack of confidence and enthusiasm for learning in young students.
5. After switching schools, she was relieved to finally receive proper guidance instead of being mistutored.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/mistutor>