

MISWORSHIPER

Meaning: MISWORSHIPER: A person who improperly or inadequately worships, failing to honor the true essence of their faith or beliefs.

1. The congregation was warned about the dangers of being a misworshiper, as it could lead to spiritual disillusionment.
2. In the eyes of the faithful, a misworshiper was someone who failed to honor the true essence of their beliefs.
3. She felt that misworshippers often twisted sacred texts to fit their own agendas.
4. A misworshiper might attend services but lack genuine commitment to the community's values.
5. The pastor addressed misworshippers in his sermon, urging them to seek a deeper connection to their faith.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/misworshiper>