

MITIGATORY

Meaning: Mitigatory refers to actions or factors that reduce the severity or intensity of a situation or impact.

1. The company implemented several mitigatory measures to address the environmental impact of its operations.
2. Her calm demeanor served as a mitigatory factor during the heated debate, helping to ease tensions among the participants.
3. To ensure safety, the engineers proposed mitigatory steps to reduce the risks associated with the construction project.
4. The new policy includes mitigatory provisions aimed at protecting vulnerable communities from economic downturns.
5. In response to the criticism, the organization developed a mitigatory plan to improve transparency and accountability.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/mitigatory>