

MITTENT

Meaning: A mittent is a type of warm hand covering, typically made of fabric, that covers the entire hand and has a separate section for the thumb but not for the other fingers.

1. The child wore a colorful mittent that matched her winter coat.
2. During the snowball fight, I lost one mittent while trying to catch a flying snowball.
3. He pulled off his mittent to better grip the hot cup of cocoa.
4. In the frosty morning air, she tucked her hands into her warm mittent.
5. The mittent had a small tear, but it was still her favorite accessory for cold days.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/mittent>