

MOANFUL

Meaning: MOANFUL: expressing or characterized by deep sorrow or lamentation.

1. Her moanful cry echoed through the empty halls, capturing the sorrow of her loss.
2. The moanful tune of the violin filled the air, resonating with deep emotional pain.
3. He cast a moanful glance at the old photographs, memories flooding back with each look.
4. As the storm raged outside, the wind produced a moanful sound that sent shivers down my spine.
5. The dog sat by the door with a moanful whimper, longing for its owner to return home.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/moanful>