

MOCKER

Meaning: MOCKER (noun): a person who ridicules or makes fun of others, often through sarcasm or derision.

1. The mocker stood at the back of the room, ridiculing every speaker with sarcastic remarks.
2. Despite his talent, he often felt overshadowed by the relentless mocker in his friend group.
3. Her laughter echoed through the hall, a constant reminder of the mocker who never missed a chance to tease.
4. In a moment of frustration, he confronted the mocker, demanding an end to the hurtful jokes.
5. The mocker's ability to mimic others made him popular, but it also left a trail of hurt feelings in his wake.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/mocker>