

MOCKING

Meaning: Mocking: characterized by making fun of or ridiculing someone or something in a teasing or scornful manner.

1. The comedian's mocking tone made everyone laugh, even those who were the butt of the jokes.
2. She found it difficult to ignore the mocking comments from her classmates about her new hairstyle.
3. His mocking laughter echoed through the empty hall, leaving a chill in the air.
4. They engaged in a playful, mocking debate that showcased their quick wit and humor.
5. The artist's work included a mocking portrayal of societal norms that challenged the viewer's perceptions.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/mocking>