

MODERATORSHIP

Meaning: Moderatorship refers to the role or position of overseeing and managing discussions or activities, ensuring order, respect, and fairness among participants.

1. Her moderatorship on the forum helped maintain a respectful and constructive environment.
2. He was praised for his moderatorship during the heated debate, ensuring all voices were heard.
3. The success of the conference greatly depended on the effectiveness of the moderatorship provided by the panel leader.
4. In her moderatorship, she skillfully balanced opposing viewpoints to foster a productive discussion.
5. The student council elected her as the moderatorship chair, recognizing her ability to mediate conflicts.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/moderatorship>