

MODERNIST

Meaning: Modernist (adjective): relating to a cultural movement that emerged in the late 19th and early 20th centuries, characterized by a break from traditional forms and an emphasis on innovation and experimentation in art, literature, and architecture.

1. The modernist movement in literature challenged traditional narrative forms and embraced experimentation.
2. Her modernist paintings were characterized by bold colors and abstract shapes that pushed the boundaries of conventional art.
3. In architecture, modernist designs often prioritize functionality over ornamentation, resulting in sleek, minimalist structures.
4. The modernist philosophy emphasized individualism and a break from societal norms, reflecting the turmoil of the early 20th century.
5. Many modernist writers sought to capture the complexities of human experience through fragmented narratives and stream-of-consciousness techniques.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/modernist>