

MODIFICATION

Meaning: Modification: a change or adjustment made to improve or alter something.

1. The team proposed a modification to the existing design to improve its efficiency.
2. Her successful modification of the recipe made it more appealing to a wider audience.
3. The software update included a crucial modification that resolved several security issues.
4. After careful consideration, the researchers made a slight modification to their experiment's methodology.
5. His thoughtful modification of the contract ensured that both parties were protected.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/modification>