

MODIFICATIVE

Meaning: Modificative (adjective): relating to or serving to modify, especially in providing additional information or clarification about a noun or clause.

1. The modificative clause in the sentence clarified the subject's intention.
2. In linguistics, a modificative adjective provides additional information about a noun.
3. Her modificative feedback helped refine the proposal significantly.
4. The team's modificative approach transformed the project into a more viable solution.
5. They used a modificative strategy to enhance the overall effectiveness of their argument.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/modificative>