

MOLEHILL

Meaning: Molehill: a trivial or minor issue that is exaggerated or made to seem more significant than it actually is.

1. He turned a minor issue into a mountain out of a molehill.
2. After the argument, she realized she had made a molehill out of something trivial.
3. It's easy to make a molehill out of a small problem when you're feeling stressed.
4. The manager warned the team not to create a molehill from a simple misunderstanding.
5. Sometimes people blow things out of proportion, turning molehills into mountains.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/molehill>