

MOLLAH

Meaning: Mollah: a title for a Muslim religious leader or scholar, often responsible for teaching and interpreting Islamic law and guiding the community.

1. The Mollah delivered a stirring sermon that captivated the entire congregation.
2. In the village, the Mollah was respected not only for his religious knowledge but also for his wisdom in resolving disputes.
3. During the festival, the Mollah offered prayers for peace and prosperity for all the families in the community.
4. Many sought the guidance of the Mollah during difficult times, trusting in his advice and compassion.
5. The Mollah's presence at the gathering added a sense of solemnity and reverence to the occasion.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/mollah>