

MOLLIENT

Meaning: Mollient (adjective): having a soothing or softening effect, particularly on the skin.

1. The herbal cream was designed to be a molient, soothing dry skin and providing relief.
2. After a long day, she indulged in a molient lotion that left her skin feeling soft and rejuvenated.
3. The spa offered a molient treatment that promised to hydrate and nourish the skin deeply.
4. His favorite part of the skincare routine was the molient serum that made his complexion glow.
5. In the winter, a molient balm is essential for keeping lips from chapping in the cold weather.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/mollient>