

MOLLIFICATION

Meaning: Mollification is the act of calming or soothing someone's anger or anxiety.

1. The manager's mollification of the upset employees helped restore a positive atmosphere in the office.
2. After the heated debate, the politician offered a mollification to the crowd, promising to address their concerns.
3. Her calm demeanor served as a mollification during the tense negotiation, easing the worries of both parties.
4. The therapist's gentle words acted as a mollification, helping the distressed client to feel more at ease.
5. To achieve mollification from the angry customer, the company offered a full refund and a sincere apology.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/mollification>