

MOMENTAL

Meaning: Momental: relating to a significant or pivotal moment, often characterized by importance or impact.

1. The artist captured the momental beauty of the sunset in his painting.
2. In that momental decision, she changed the course of her life forever.
3. The momental realization that he was ready to move on came after months of reflection.
4. Each momental event in history shapes our understanding of the world today.
5. Her speech was filled with momental thoughts that inspired everyone in the audience.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/momental>