

MONERAL

Meaning: Moneral refers to substances or deposits that consist of minerals, often containing valuable resources used in various industries.

1. Moneral deposits can contain valuable resources that are crucial for various industries.
2. The geologist specialized in the study of moneral components found within the earth's crust.
3. In his research, he discovered a new type of moneral that had unique chemical properties.
4. Understanding the formation of moneral structures can lead to advancements in material science.
5. The moneral samples collected from the site showed signs of significant mineralization.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/moneral>