

MONGER

Meaning: MONGER (noun): A person who promotes or sells a specific commodity or idea, often used in combination with the type of goods or fears they deal with.

1. The fishmonger at the market always has the freshest catch of the day.
2. She became known as a fearmonger, spreading anxiety about the impending storm.
3. The news was filled with reports from a war monger trying to incite conflict.
4. He's such a gossip monger that it's hard to believe anything he says.
5. In the small town, the vegetable monger offered a variety of organic produce every Saturday.
6. She was known as a rumor monger, spreading gossip wherever she went.
7. The spice monger sold exotic flavors that transformed everyday dishes.
8. In times of crisis, the politician was accused of being a fear monger.
9. He made a fortune as a coal monger during the industrial boom.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/monger>