

MONILIFORM

Meaning: Moniliform refers to a shape or structure that is bead-like or resembling a string of beads.

1. The necklace was crafted from moniliform beads that added a unique texture to the design.
2. In botany, the term moniliform is often used to describe structures that resemble a string of beads.
3. The artist's use of moniliform patterns in her painting created a visually captivating effect.
4. During the lecture, the professor explained how moniliform shapes can be found in various natural formations.
5. The ancient artifact featured a moniliform design that suggested a sophisticated level of craftsmanship.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/moniliform>