

MONISHER

Meaning: Monisher: a person who delivers a speech or message, often with the intent to motivate or inspire an audience.

1. The monisher delivered a powerful speech that resonated with the audience.
2. During the meeting, the monisher emphasized the importance of teamwork and collaboration.
3. She took on the role of monisher, ensuring that everyone adhered to the guidelines.
4. As a skilled monisher, he was able to provide constructive feedback without discouraging his peers.
5. The monisher's presence was crucial in maintaining order during the chaotic event.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/monisher>