

MONOCARPELLARY

Meaning: Monocarpellary refers to a botanical structure or fruit that consists of a single carpel, which encloses the ovules.

1. The monocarpellary structure of the flower is characterized by a single carpel that encloses the ovules.
2. In botany, a monocarpellary fruit develops from a single carpel, making it a unique specimen for study.
3. Many species of legumes exhibit monocarpellary characteristics in their floral anatomy.
4. The researcher focused on the evolutionary advantages of monocarpellary plants in adapting to arid environments.
5. During the experiment, the team observed that the monocarpellary configuration influenced the plant's reproductive success.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/monocarpellary>