

MONOCHROME

Meaning: Monochrome refers to an artwork or design that uses varying shades of a single color or a wardrobe consisting of outfits in one color, highlighting tonal contrasts and simplicity.

1. The artist decided to paint the entire landscape in monochrome, emphasizing the play of light and shadow.
2. Her wardrobe consisted mostly of monochrome outfits, which she believed exuded sophistication and elegance.
3. The film's monochrome aesthetic beautifully captured the mood of the era it portrayed.
4. He experimented with monochrome photography, focusing on textures and contrasts rather than color.
5. The architect's design featured a striking monochrome façade that stood out against the vibrant surroundings.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/monochrome>