

MONOCILIATED

Meaning: Monociliated refers to a cellular structure characterized by having a single cilium, which aids in locomotion or movement in various organisms.

1. The unicellular organism was distinguished by its monociliated structure, enabling it to move efficiently through water.
2. Researchers discovered that the monociliated cells played a crucial role in the respiratory system of the amphibian.
3. In the laboratory, the scientists successfully isolated a monociliated species of algae for further study.
4. The monociliated protists showcased a remarkable adaptation to their aquatic environment, allowing them to thrive.
5. Understanding the function of monociliated cells can provide insights into various biological processes in multicellular organisms.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/monociliated>