

MONOCLE

Meaning: Monocle: a single eyeglass, typically held in place by the eye socket, used to correct vision in one eye or for decorative purposes.

1. The eccentric gentleman adjusted his monocle to get a better view of the intricate painting.
2. In the classic detective novels, the sleuth was often depicted wearing a distinguished monocle.
3. She found an old monocle in her grandfather's attic, a relic of a bygone era.
4. His monocle slipped from his eye and clattered onto the floor, drawing everyone's attention.
5. With a monocle perched on his nose, he looked both sophisticated and slightly absurd.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/monocle>