

MONOCULOUS

Meaning: Monoculous refers to having or characterized by a single eye or eye-like feature.

1. The monoculous figure in the painting seemed to watch the viewer with an unnerving intensity.
2. He wore a monoculous mask that concealed half his face, adding an air of mystery to his character.
3. In the whimsical story, the monoculous monster was both feared and misunderstood by the townsfolk.
4. Her monoculous gaze, filled with both curiosity and wonder, captivated everyone around her.
5. The scientist presented a monoculous lens that promised to revolutionize our understanding of micro-organisms.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/monoculous>