

MONOGRAPH

Meaning: A monograph is a detailed written study or scholarly work that focuses on a specific subject or topic.

1. The scholar published a comprehensive monograph that explored the intricacies of ancient Roman architecture.
2. Her monograph on climate change effects in urban areas received widespread acclaim from environmental experts.
3. He dedicated several years to writing a monograph that examined the philosophical implications of artificial intelligence.
4. The library featured a special section for monographs, highlighting unique research contributions from various disciplines.
5. In her monograph, she presented a detailed analysis of the historical context surrounding the Civil Rights Movement.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/monograph>