

MONOLITH

Meaning: Monolith: a large, upright stone or structure, often of monumental significance, that stands alone or dominates its surroundings.

1. The ancient temple stood as a monolith against the skyline, a testament to the civilization that once thrived there.
2. In the heart of the desert, a massive monolith loomed, drawing explorers from around the world.
3. The artist carved a stunning sculpture from a single block of stone, creating a true monolith that captivated all who saw it.
4. During the meeting, his unwavering stance on the issue made him seem like a monolith, unyielding and resolute.
5. The towering monolith of glass and steel symbolized the city's ambition and modernity.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/monolith>