

MONOPLEGIA

Meaning: Monoplegia is a medical condition characterized by paralysis affecting a single limb.

1. Monoplegia refers to paralysis affecting a single limb, often resulting from a neurological condition.
2. In cases of monoplegia, patients may require specialized physical therapy to regain strength and mobility.
3. The diagnosis of monoplegia can be challenging and typically involves comprehensive neurological assessments.
4. After his stroke, the patient experienced monoplegia, making it difficult for him to use his right arm.
5. Understanding the underlying cause of monoplegia is crucial for developing an effective treatment plan.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/monoplegia>