

MONOPOLIZER

Meaning: Monopolizer: a person or entity that dominates a market or a particular domain, restricting competition or limiting the contribution of others.

1. The monopolizer of the market made it nearly impossible for new competitors to enter.
2. In the board meeting, she was criticized for being a monopolizer of ideas, stifling creativity among her team.
3. His reputation as a monopolizer of resources led to resentment among his colleagues.
4. To combat the monopolizer's influence, the community rallied for fair regulations.
5. Many consumers complained about the high prices set by the monopolizer, who controlled the entire supply chain.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/monopolizer>