

MONOSEPALOUS

Meaning: Monosepalous refers to a flower that has a single, undivided sepal.

1. The term 'monosepalous' describes flowers that have a single, undivided sepal structure.
2. In botany, a monosepalous flower can often be confused with those that have multiple sepals.
3. Some species exhibit monosepalous characteristics, making them unique in floral morphology.
4. The classification of plants often involves distinguishing between monosepalous and polysepalous formations.
5. Monosepalous plants may display different adaptations to their environment compared to their polysepalous counterparts.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/monosepalous>