

MONOTHELITIC

Meaning: Monothelitic refers to a structure or composition that is formed as a single, unified entity, often conveying a sense of permanence and stability.

1. The geologist studied the monolithic structure, noting its unique monothelitic composition.
2. In architecture, a monolithic design often conveys a sense of permanence and stability.
3. The artist aimed to create a monothelitic sculpture that would stand the test of time.
4. Researchers discovered a monothelitic rock formation that challenged previous geological theories.
5. The ancient ruins displayed a monolithic style that reflected the culture's values and beliefs.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/monothelitic>