

MONOTONY

Meaning: Monotony refers to a lack of variety and interest, resulting in dullness and repetitiveness in one's routine or experiences.

1. The monotony of her daily routine began to weigh heavily on her spirit.
2. He sought adventure to break the monotony of his predictable life.
3. The endless rows of identical houses contributed to the monotony of the neighborhood.
4. To combat the monotony of winter, they planned exciting weekend getaways.
5. She found solace in music as a way to escape the monotony of her workday.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/monotony>