

MONSTROUS

Meaning: Monstrous: exceptionally large, severe, or extreme in a way that evokes shock or awe.

1. The monstrous storm left destruction in its wake, ravaging the coastline.
2. Her monstrous appetite for success drove her to work late into the night.
3. The creature in the movie was so monstrous that it sent shivers down my spine.
4. They faced a monstrous challenge when they decided to climb the treacherous mountain.
5. His monstrous behavior during the argument shocked everyone in the room.
6. The monstrous creature lurked in the shadows, waiting for its next victim.
7. Her monstrous appetite for destruction left a trail of chaos in its wake.
8. He faced a monstrous challenge that tested every ounce of his strength and resilience.
9. The film featured a monstrous villain whose evil plans sent shivers down the audience's spines.
10. Despite its monstrous appearance, the animal was surprisingly gentle and affectionate.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/monstrous>