

MONSTRUOUS

Meaning: Monstrous: extremely large or frightening; also, excessively intense or extreme in nature.

1. The monstrous creature emerged from the shadows, instilling fear in everyone who laid eyes on it.
2. Her monstrous appetite for success drove her to work late into the night, leaving little time for rest.
3. The film featured a monstrous villain whose evil deeds kept the audience on the edge of their seats.
4. In the heart of the storm, the monstrous waves crashed against the shore with terrifying force.
5. The artist's latest sculpture was a monstrous representation of human emotion, captivating all who viewed it.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/monstruous>