

MONTHLING

Meaning: A monthling is a newly blossomed flower or plant that emerges in a particular month, often symbolizing the start of a new season.

1. The monthling was a delightful surprise, marking the start of a new season.
2. In her garden, the monthling blossomed with vibrant colors that captured everyone's attention.
3. With each passing day, the monthling seemed to grow taller and more resilient.
4. I couldn't believe how quickly the monthling transformed the landscape around it.
5. Every monthling in the field danced gently in the warm breeze, creating a picturesque scene.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/monthling>