

MONTIFORM

Meaning: Montiform (adjective): resembling or shaped like a mountain or hill.

1. The artist's latest sculpture features a montiform design that mimics the gentle curves of rolling hills.
2. In geology, montiform structures often indicate the ancient volcanic activity that shaped the landscape.
3. The montiform pattern of the clouds created a stunning backdrop for the sunset.
4. She chose a montiform layout for the garden, emphasizing the natural flow of the terrain.
5. The architect's innovative use of montiform elements in the building's facade drew widespread acclaim.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/montiform>