

MONTIGENOUS

Meaning: Montigenous refers to plants or animals that are native to or thrive in mountainous or high-altitude environments.

1. The montigenous plants thrive in the high-altitude regions where the climate is harsh.
2. Researchers discovered a montigenous species of frog that had never been documented before.
3. The montigenous terrain features unique geological formations that attract geologists from around the world.
4. Explorers ventured into the montigenous areas to study their distinct ecosystems and biodiversity.
5. Local traditions often incorporate montigenous elements, reflecting the deep connection between the community and their environment.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/montigenous>