

MOODINESS

Meaning: Moodiness refers to the quality of being subject to frequent changes in emotional state, often resulting in unpredictability and tension in social or work environments.

1. Her moodiness often made it difficult for her friends to plan activities.
2. The constant moodiness in the workplace created an atmosphere of tension and uncertainty.
3. Children may exhibit moodiness as a natural part of their emotional development.
4. He attributed his moodiness to lack of sleep and a hectic schedule.
5. Despite her moodiness, she had a unique charm that drew people to her.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/moodiness>