MOODIR

Meaning: Moodir (noun): a state or atmosphere of emotional disposition or attitude, particularly one that is positive and uplifting.

1. The team’s performance improved dramatically after their new manager instilled a positive moodir.
2. She always seems to have a cheerful moodir that brightens the entire room.
3. His moodir shifted unexpectedly when he received the good news about the promotion.
4. The festival created a festive moodir that brought everyone together in celebration.
5. Even on tough days, her resilient moodir inspires those around her to stay hopeful.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/moodir